Acting College Principal: Mr Trevor Cox

Trevor Cox (Acting College Principal)- Trevor is currently Assistant Principal, providing support and oversight to the Junior School as well as overseeing whole-school Positive Climate. Trevor began his teaching career at Lowanna College before spending nine years at St. Paul's Anglican Grammar School in Warragul. In 2017 Trevor returned to Lowanna College as an Assistant Principal. A Physical Education/Psychology teacher by trade, Trevor prides himself on developing strong relationships with students, parents, and staff. In 2023, Trevor established Lowanna College as a School Wide Positive Behaviour Support (SWPBS) school, developing behaviour expectations across all settings at the school. Trevor is also a leader in delivering Berry Street education model strategies within the college and is passionate about providing positive outcomes for all students.

In his spare time, Trevor enjoys spending time with his son, supporting St. Kilda Football Club, attempting to be a farmer, and enjoying the outdoors.
